

Regulations for Quiet Dormitory Living at NTUST

1. Purpose: To enhance the quality of student accommodation and develop healthy sleep habits, the "Quiet Dormitory" is established and hereby enacts this agreement.

2. Living Standards

(1) Those who apply for vacant spots in the Dormitory are deemed to agree to the relevant provisions in this agreement.

(2) Students living in the Dormitory must comply with the relevant provisions of the "Student Dormitory Management Regulations" of the university and abide by the provisions in this agreement.

(3) The dormitory should be kept quiet at all times. Playing computer games (including offline and online games) is prohibited after 12 midnight to maintain the quality of accommodation and tranquility.

(4) The main light in the dormitory must be turned off at 12 midnight sharp. Use desk lamps if necessary.

(5) To avoid disturbing other students' sleep and daily routines, bathing and washing should be completed before 12 midnight and electrical appliances such as hair dryers should not be used.

(6) Speaking softly after 12 midnight is required. For those who need to use sound systems, please use headphones to avoid disturbing other roommates' peace and routines.

(7) When leaving the dormitory, please gently close the door and avoid slamming it shut.

(8) This agreement shall be discussed and approved by the student dormitory autonomous council. Any revisions should follow the same procedure.

3. Punishments for violations

(1) Students who violate this agreement will be warned for the first time. Repeat offenders will be penalized with point deductions according to the "Student Dormitory Management Regulations."

(2) If accumulate 20 or more violation points will be expelled from the NTUST dorm, and will not be eligible for dormitory application during the academic year.

(3) When you are no longer allowed to stay in the NTUST dormitory due to violation of regulations, you will be responsible for the final consequences. Things such as finding an off-campus rental, and all the expenses incurred (such as off-campus accommodation rent, etc. are your responsibility)
